Call to order: 10:02am

Roll call--Richard Phipps, Doris Morgan present, Sandra Van Dyke by phone

Pledge of Allegiance

Also, in attendance were Chief of Police Joshua Coe, Lt. Walnoha, Mike Presley, Sydney Presley and Susie Forrest.

This meeting was called specifically to address the local mortuary's concerns and disagreement with the local order put in place by the cemetery in response to Covid-19.

Chief Coe gave a status report regarding Covid-19, and the current orders in place at the state, county levels, and the police departments role.

Following an informative discussion between all party's attending. Mike asked if the cemetery was going to change the rules. Mike and Sydney left abruptly after being told that the local orders will stand, until state/county orders were receded or altered. As the Presley's were leaving Mike informed the police department, they will be called on for traffic control, and the he would be unloading the casket along the road, and the cemetery staff would have to bring it in for burial.

Meeting adjourned at 10:35
